

Luebeck - 20/21 June 2018

The ShortSeaShipping Days are a conference accompanied by a trade event. Around 40 companies are showcased at the conference, which is held every two years. Topics of current interest in shortsea shipping will be on the agenda at the third conference in Lübeck. These will include issues of sustainability, economic efficiency, development of European markets, and the effects of political regulation, as well as innovation and digitalization. Around 450 guests are expected to attend the event. The conference and trade fair are aimed at representatives from the entire transport chain such as consignors, forwarders, shipping lines, ports, terminals, and the business world.

Sponsorship and exhibition opportunities non-members (limited contingent)

The front of the table and the display are marked with your logo. We decided to keep the overall concept of the ShortSeaShipping Days 2018 very open. The individual booths are optically separated by plants and should equally invite for working, eating and networking.

Space in the entrance area of the hall incl. one table, four chairs and brochure holders
